

Dear X,

Thank you very much for purchasing a ticket to attend the Institute of Public Affairs' 70th Anniversary Dinner with special guest Mr Rupert Murdoch AC. We are looking forward to seeing you tomorrow night.

I'm delighted to inform you that among many other special guests, the Leader of the Opposition, the Hon Tony Abbott MHR, will also be joining us on the night.

The pre-dinner reception begins at 6.30pm in Federation Court at the National Gallery of Victoria. Guests should enter via the main entrance next to the Waterwall on St. Kilda Road.

A strict security system will be in place on the night. Please ensure that you bring photo ID and your entrée card with you. If you have not yet received your entrée card, please contact Rachel Leigh in our office at [contact details removed].

We are very excited to have arranged four exciting auction items. The proceeds from the auction will make a substantial contribution to the IPA's running costs for 2013. The items are:

- An exclusive, private guided tour of the Reagan Ranch in California for up to four people. The Reagan Ranch is not open to the public and tours are by invitation only.
- A behind the scenes experience with Andrew Bolt at the filming of The Bolt Report in Melbourne. Watch a taping of Australia's best political program and join host Andrew Bolt for coffee after the show.
- Morning tea in Sydney with the Hon John Howard AC, the Hon Tony Abbott MHR, Mr Alan Jones AO and Dr Janet Albrechtsen for up to ten people. A once in a lifetime opportunity to meet with a former and future prime minister and two of the most influential voices in Australian politics.
- A behind the scenes Fox News experience in New York including a tour of the Fox News facility, watching the taping of the O'Reilly Factor from the studio control room and meeting host Bill O'Reilly.

Thank you for your support of the IPA. We look forward to celebrating 70 years of fighting for freedom with you tomorrow night.

Regards

Hugh
